Program Description

A full-day program for District Court judges on incarcerable and non-incarcerable traffic offenses and the sentencing options that go with them: sentencing alternatives for problem drivers, the MVA Graduated Licensing System, driving records, non-citizen licensing, the Medical Advisory Board, and masking. Case studies and Slido polling run through the day, and the program closes with a table scenario on the new reckless driving law. (Official description on the 2026 Course Information Form.)

Meeting

Faculty Meeting

- Participants: Hon. program staff.
- Blocks assigned: opens with Docket and Courtroom Control; takes Sentencing Alternatives and Problem Drivers; takes Masking; takes the MVA block; Medical Advisory Board is its own segment.
- 2026 centers the current learning outcomes rather than the prior full substantive-law survey, to protect masking time.
- Slido stays. Faculty reuse what works from the 2025 set and add hypotheticals.

- Program staff to send prior materials, Slido list, roster, and bios.

Planning Call 2 · [redacted] · 12:00 p.m. · Zoom

- Participants: Hon. program staff.
- moved before lunch; sequence above reflects it. masking and CDL time is protected.
- Slido runs inside each session. The end-of-day recap is cut.
- Closing is a progressive-facts reckless driving table scenario, 2:45–3:15 p.m., wrap-up 3:15–3:30 p.m. Faculty own the facts; staff format the activity.
- About 45 participants expected, table seating, several circuit judges.
- confirmed after the call. Next check-in settles materials, slides, and the scenario.

Highlights only; full minutes are held in the program file.
